

Lösungen:

Madame Tussauds, Houses of Parliament, Tower Bridge, Tate Modern, Big Ben, Hyde Park, Globe Theatre, London Eye, Elizabeth Tower, interests, London Aquarium, Covent Garden, Tower of London

Top Places:

London is a beautiful city with many places of _____.

The _____ is where the British government meets.

The _____ is an old clock tower that is 98 meters high.

His biggest bell is called _____.

If you want see sharks, fish and all kinds of sea creatures you have to visit the _____.

A great collection of modern art you can find in the _____.

The _____ which was built in 1078 is a museum where you can see the Crown Jewels.

A well known tourist attraction is _____ Located in Central London there a lots life size wax models of famous people.

Another famous landmark of London is the _____.

The bridge at the river Thames can be raised, so big ships can go through.

Visitors should also take a quick trip to the _____ which is part of the International Shakespeare Globe Centre.

The _____ is a giant wheel not far away from the Houses of Parliament. The ride on the wheel gives you one of the best views of London. _____ is a nice park with paths, a lake and lots of trees.

_____ however is known for his cool shops, cafés and restaurants.